HISTORY

A year to remember: 1929.

CIS Broker has been meaning “insurance brokerage” for more than 70 years. It was established under the name of Studio Bertotti, from the name of its founder, one of the first to understand the new value of insurance services and the one who brought in Italy a philosophy based on the customer and not on the product itself. Mr. Bertotti was a far-sighted courtier ( a French word because “broker” wasn’t a common term at the time). He started his business in Rome and moved to Milan when World War II was over to profit the raising economical situation.

The growth of the company was fast and new offices were opened in the country to provide a service that was at this point well known, but was starting to be developed on a large scale.

In 1983, Mr. Bertotti decided to retire and the company was renamed CIS srl (Compagnia Intermediazione Servizi), under the control of his nephew Giovanni Delucchi. Today it’s the time of CIS Broker Group, the global company with new outlooks but with the
